No More Lies

I bet you think you're oh so smart
If I could see inside you, I'm sure there'd be no heart
I wish I'd known this from the very start
I'd have taken no part

I don't believe a word you say
I don't condone the games you play
Someone's gonna get hurt someday
It's a high price to pay, just to get your way

No more lies
No more lies
No more secrets or alibis
No more lies

You must have been a precocious child
With your twinkling eyes and your infectious smile
But that charm only lasts for a little while Then we realize, that you're just attempting to beguile

No more lies
No more lies
No more secrets or alibis
No more lies

This Is Not Another Love Song

This is not another love song

This is not a lullaby
This, however, is a song I wrote for you
A song about your life

I do not like you
You are not very nice
I wish you had some redeeming quality
But I couldn't find one and I looked twice

You eyes are so dark
They are like two little black holes
Trying to dissuade anyone
From seeing inside your soul

This is not another love song
This is not a lullaby
This, however, is a song I wrote for you
A song about your life

I see on your lips
There's no trace of a smile, just a pout
But if one happens to creep in You cover up your mouth

You say you're unique
A nonconformist to the hilt
I think you're just angry Hidin' behind a wall so you don't feel the guilt

This is not another love song
This, however, is a song I wrote for you
A song about your life

I do not like you
You are not very nice
I wish you had some redeeming quality

I wish you luck my friend
I wish you would see the light
All the endless possibilities
If you could find it in your heart to j ust be nice
If you could be polite
If you could treat me right
Then we could both get a decent sleep at night

This is not another love song
This, however, is a song I wrote for you
A song about your life

It's Just Gonna Take A While

I shall play the crying fool
The Queen of broken hearts
My insides are tiny
Shattered parts

No matter what you say to me
Our hearts remain the same
I know that you'll be Back again

It's in your touch
It's in your smile
It's just gonna take a while

Sometime soon you'll realize
Why the smile has left my eyes
And only you can put it
There again

Please don't have to go away
Things don't really have to change
In fact they're just the same as Years ago

It's in your touch
It's in your smile
It's just gonna take a while

I will be waiting
Don't be scared
Just remember I'll be there
Don't stop thinking
Don't forget
It's not really over yet

It's in your touch
It's in your smile
It's just gonna take a while

It's pouring buckets from my eyes
Please dear God help him realize I'll forgive him and then he will see
We'll be together for eternity

It's in your touch
It's in your smile
It's just gonna take a while

It's in your touch
It's in your smile
It's just gonna take a while
I love you

Erased

You always say
You'll call me on my birthday
You always say
You're going to write at Christmas
You always say
You'll call me tomorrow
In so many ways
You have been erased

You always said
We'd have a future together
You always said
You'd love me forever
But you never said
You'd take those words back
In so many ways
You have been erased

But at night
Once in a while
There you'll be
In my dreams

So many days
And I haven't thought of you
So many hours
I'm too busy to miss you
So many years
Have gone by since I've seen you
In so many ways
You have been erased

But at night
Once in a while
In my dreams

So, stay out of my dreams
I don't want to miss you
Stay out of my mind
Hypnotize me to forget
Stay out of my heart
I want selective amnesia
In so many ways
You have been erased
Yes, in so many ways
You have been erased

Child of My Child - A Lullaby

Child of my child
I see myself in you
I see my son in you
Little baby

Child of my child
I want the best for you
Your every dream come true
Little baby

I Know
That time will go fast

That you will grow tall
That you will have it all
But for now
Child of my child
You're my little baby

Child of my child
I watch while you're at play
See you grow every day
Little baby

Child of my child
Watch you become sleepy
I love you so deeply
Little baby

Superficial World

I'm no pop princess midriff baring little girl
Like those obsessed with this paparazzi
world
Who's dating whom, and who's addicted to what Everyone knows, Britney will pose in Playboy like a little s---

So what's your take on this superficial
world?
world?

September eleventh has become a marketing pitch
A real tragedy that's making vendors very rich
People like Martha can lie without a hitch
Now I can see why they call her such a great big b---

Because we're living in a superficial world

Love is just a game that some people play
Another divorce, it's just a price to pay
A prime example, well that would be J.Lo Commitment to her ain't serious, she is just another h-

Hope we get rid of this superficial world
Hope we get rid of this superficial world

Hello to everyone who listens to my song
You may not think it's right
But it's not altogether wrong
Let's try to fix this mess before it starts to swell

Or we may find ourselves living in a world called H---

Help me get rid of this superficial world
Because we're living in a superficial world
So what's your take on this superficial world?

So Far Away

So far away
Waiting for the days to go by Each and every day
Seems to go more slowly

Pictures in my mind
Find the time to daydream
Unlike a nursery rhyme
Life can be so mean

One, two, three
Minutes go so slowly
Time is all we don't need

Shadows of time
Try to steal my memory
Force them all away
They can't succeed

Try to fill my time
Watch the seconds tick away
Wait impatiently
As time goes by

One, two, three
Minutes go so slowly
Time is all we don't need

Wait until the day
Till I see your smile again
Wrapped up in your arms
Feeling so secure

Images of you
Always coming into mind
Lie awake at night Thinking of you
One, two, three
Minutes go so slowly
But when you are here
Time Stands Still

Lavender Girl

I'm not red hot mad
I'm not tragically sad blue
But I have to hold it all inside
Until I see you

I guess that makes me
A lavender girl
Yeah, I guess that makes me
A lavender girl

I love garnets that are red
And sapphires that are blue
But to amethysts I must say
I'll always be true

I guess that makes me
A lavender girl
Yeah, I guess that makes me
A lavender girl

Sterling silver roses
Lilacs, violets too
All these purple flowers
Are lavender in hue

The wonders of love's emotions
Aren't just red or blue
They're made of many colors
I know this much is true

My lips are painted red
My eyes are blue
Look deeply into them
When I blow kisses to you

And then you'll know what makes me
A lavender girl
Yeah, you'll know what makes me
A lavender girl

I've Got You

There are days
I'm sure a cloud
Hovers over me
And everything
Appears to be grey

There are times
I feel nothing's
Going Right
Makes me feel blue

Curl up in bed
Bad thoughts running
Through my head
Wishing I were dead
But none of that happens
'Cause I've got you

Prozac, Zoloft, Paxil, Celexa
Don't need drugs
'Cause I've got you
Who needs them when
I've got you

There are nights
When I just Can't stop thinking
I've been swallowed
By a hole that's deep
And black

There are moments
When I might feel that Something's missing
I'm in a haze
Of pure beige

Curl up in bed
Bad thoughts running
Through my head
Wishing I were dead
But none of that happens
'Cause I've got you

Sigmund Freud, Carl Jung, Wilhelm
Reich, Margaret Mahler
Don't need therapy
'Cause I've got you
Who needs them when
I've got you
Yeah, who needs them when
I've got you
